FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEMEDNAX Announces Board of Directors Nominees

Carlos A. Migoya and Michael A. Rucker Nominated for Election to the Company's Board of Directors

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., March 28, 2019 – MEDNAX, Inc. (NYSE: MD), the national health solutions partner specializing in neonatology, anesthesiology, radiology, maternal-fetal medicine, other pediatric services, and management services, today announced the nomination of Carlos A. Migoya and Michael A. Rucker to stand for election to the Company's Board of Directors at its Annual Meeting of Shareholders on May 16, 2019.

As previously announced, MEDNAX's Board and its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee initiated a process, with the support of the nationally-recognized executive search firm Spencer Stuart, to evaluate the Board's composition and identify additional director candidates to help drive MEDNAX's strategy. As a result of that process, the Board, following the recommendation of its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, nominated Carlos A. Migoya and Michael A. Rucker to stand for election to the Company's Board of Directors, alongside the current members of the Board, which would expand the size of the Board of Directors to 11 members.

"We are excited to announce the nominations of Carlos and Michael to stand for election by our shareholders to our Board," said Cesar L. Alvarez, Chairman of the Board. "As we work to execute on our strategy to drive long-term growth and deliver value to our shareholders, we are committed to maintaining a Board that provides robust oversight and has the right skills to support and advise MEDNAX. Carlos and Michael will bring to our Board extensive experience as healthcare and business leaders at a variety of enterprises, and their expertise will be critical as we implement our strategy over the coming years."

Carlos A. Migoya

Since 2011, Carlos A. Migoya has served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Jackson Health System, the public health system for Miami-Dade County, which includes Jackson Memorial Hospital, Jackson South Medical Center, Jackson North Medical Center, Holtz Children's Hospital, Jackson Rehabilitation Hospital, Jackson Behavioral Health Hospital, urgent care centers, multiple primary care and specialty care centers, two long-term care nursing facilities and a team of corrections health services clinics, and generated over $1.8 billion in revenue in 2016. Mr. Migoya led the transformation of Jackson Health System from a large budget deficit in the year before his tenure, to budget surpluses in each subsequent year. Prior to joining Jackson Health System, Mr. Migoya served as City Manager for the City of Miami from 2010 to 2011, a position he held in a pro bono capacity, while eliminating a $115 million budget deficit. Prior to serving as City Manager, Mr. Migoya worked for Wells Fargo & Company and its predecessors, including Wachovia Corporation and First Union Corporation, for more than 25 years, retiring as Regional President, North Carolina and Chief Executive Officer, Atlantic Region. Mr. Migoya served as a member of the board of directors of AutoNation, Inc. from 2006-2015.

Michael A. Rucker

Since 2017, Michael A. Rucker has served as Chief Executive Officer, and since 2016 as a member of the Board of Directors, of Ivy Rehab Network, Inc., one of the largest networks of physical therapy clinics in the United States. Prior to joining Ivy Rehab, Mr. Rucker served from 2010 to 2017 as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Surgical Care Affiliates, Inc., at the time a publicly traded operator of one of the nation's largest networks of surgical facilities, until its acquisition by UnitedHealth Group. Mr. Rucker has also held executive roles in various healthcare companies, including DaVita, Inc., where he served as Division Vice President from 2005 to 2008 after DaVita acquired Gambro Healthcare, where Mr. Rucker had served in various general management and business development capacities since 1997.
